

Lifting

Jordan Yuscavage and Taylor Bonham

Walking heavy
Every step, It moves me more
To a place I've been before

It's getting harder
To pick myself up again
Your light shines through
My darkness

So I'm calling out to you
I'm desperate need of something
I'm crying out to you

I can feel you lifting
This burden off of me
You breathe your breath in me

My soul begins to breathe
It's breathing
My soul begins to breathe
(x2)

I'm calling out to you
I'm crying out to you
(x3)

My soul begins to breathe
Its breathing
My soul begins to breathe
It's lifting

I'm calling out to you
In desperate need of something
I'm crying out to you
