

OK

Down on my knees down on my face
You just say its ok
So many days ive thrown away
You just say its ok
I dont think i could ever repay
Your perfect grace, but its ok

Its ok, Its ok
Its ok, Its ok
Youve become my embrace
Just tell me its ok

Your precious words intoxicate
A heart that aches; its ok
You dont recall my past mistakes
You just say its ok
And this human mind cant calculate
Your perfect grace, but its ok

Its ok, Its ok
Its ok, Its ok
Youve become my embrace
Just tell me its ok

Even though youve seen a thousand times
Ive let you down
Youre always there if i should call your name
Youre unashamed, unashamed

Its ok, Its ok
Its ok, Its ok
Youve become my embrace
Just tell me its ok
